

AUDLEM & DISTRICT PROBUS CLUB

2027 Holiday

Monday May 31st – Saturday June 5th (5 nights)

At the 4-star Fairfield House Hotel in Ayr

Located on the west coast of Scotland, the Fairfield House Hotel is close to the beachfront making it the perfect place to relax and take in the tranquil surroundings of this seaside town. The 44 guest rooms offer a combination of traditional and modern touches which are complemented by the magnificent sea views.

Scottish cuisine is served in a restaurant with floor-to-ceiling windows, a bar/lounge area and a sea-view terrace. The leisure club has an indoor pool, a whirlpool tub, a sauna and a gym.

Ayr is a classic Scottish seaside town with a laid-back charm and a proud history, sitting on the Firth of Clyde. It's the sort of place where you can wander from the high street down to the beach in minutes, grab an ice cream, and watch the tide roll in. With its sandy shore, leafy parks, and connections to one of Scotland's most famous sons, it's got more going on than first meets the eye.

The town has been around since the 13th century and was once a bustling market and port town. It gained royal burgh status in 1205, and over the centuries, it's been involved in trade, shipbuilding and fishing. Robert Burns, Scotland's national poet, was born just down the road in Alloway, and his legacy is all over the town. Today, while it still holds on to its historic roots, it's also known for its schools, shops, racecourse and that all-important seaside air.

As well as the many well-known shops on the high street (including M&S) Ayr Central is the main shopping centre in Ayr with many reputable brands, all within 15mins walk of the hotel on level streets, unlike last year.

Proposed Holiday Itinerary

Monday 31st May - Leave Audlem carpark 9.30am. Comfort break at Tebay. Stop over visit to be arranged. Arrive Ayr for dinner

Tuesday 1st June - Leave the hotel at 9.30 to travel to Alloway for a morning visit to Robert Burns Museum, then travel to Culzean Castle and country Park (both NT) for the afternoon.

Wednesday 2nd June - Free day in Ayr . Trains to Glasgow run from Ayr station, takes under an hour Costs c£12 each way if you feel adventurous.

Thursday 3rd June -Travel to Dumfries House (The King's Foundation) for a guided tour of the House followed by Tea/Coffee and a scone , then free time in the grounds.

Friday 4th June -To Be arranged

Saturday 5th June -Travel Home

This Holiday combines a free day with plenty to do, with a wonderful hotel location. Shops are in easy walking distance and walks along the beach and promenade yards away. A combination enjoyed last year but this year without the hills to climb.

The hotel is not as modern or expensive as some of late but it has a 4-star charm we will enjoy, it retains the age old custom of not charging for the drivers stay and is experianced in hosting groups such as ours.It has a lift to its three floors.

The hotel is very popular and I'm keen to secure the provisional booking I have made for 30 on your behalf

If you would like to join this holiday, please add your name to the nearby sheet and pay a £200 deposit per person. The deposit is refundable until the end of 2026, when a further payment will be required..

